TERMS AND CONDITIONS
I, the here below undersigned hereby execute on behalf of the Company having full authorization to do so according to the statutes and legislation governing third party representation, the following affidavit: (i) I understand that executing the current application form on behalf of the Company constitutes legal and binding consent of the Company to the storing and processing of (a) the Company's corporate information and (b) the Company employee's information by RAISE in a manner legally appropriate with the hereto request for affiliation; (ii) I understand that only complete documentation will be processed for the Board's evaluation and approval and hereby state that all information provided herewith is accurate and up to date, having been legally obtained and disclosed to RAISE; (iii) The present affiliation form, once approved by the RAISE Board of Directors, represents a binding agreement between the parties and the Company becomes a member of the Romanian-American Institute for Smart Energy in the U.S. as soon as the membership fee is paid in RAISE's bank account; (iv) I understand that membership with RAISE does not give me or the Company any representation rights on behalf of RAISE (including but not limited to (a) right to represent and speak on behalf of RAISE or (b) issue any written and/or verbal statements binding or in the name or on behalf of RAISE) unless otherwise expressly provided in written by the RAISE Board of Directors or their proxies and/or attorneys; (v) I understand that failure to observe the covenant provided under point (iv) here above could lead to immediate exclusion from RAISE affiliate directory and termination of membership.

PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION POLICY

The Romanian-American Institute for Smart Energy in Romania (RAISE) observes your rights related to the Personal Data Protection and considers that the processing of the data that you have entrusted us must be made in accordance with all the applicable legislation (including the EU General Regulation regarding Data Protection 2016/679 and the related legislation in force in Romania).

RAISE, as operator, processes your personal data, as data subject (members, partners and collaborators, visitors in persons or visitors of www.RAISE.energy, guests and participants to all type of events or meetings organized by RAISE, media representatives, representatives of the public authorities and agencies that RAISE interacts with) for pursuing the statutory mission and objectives that RAISE was established for, such as communication, statistics, organizing events, workshops, any other type of events (including receptions, seminars, trade delegations, conferences, fairs), education-related activities (trainings, professional development), issuing any financial and accounting documents, contracts and other type of administrative papers needed in RAISE's activity, promoting RAISE members' products and services, based on your prior consent.

RAISE also operates personal data in order to allow access to online resources on its website and in order to deliver the benefits you are applying for (that include for instance electronic newsletters).

We mention that you always have the right to be informed, to delete, review and restrict personal data, to access your data, to oppose to having your personal data processed, to being subject to decisions solely based on automated processing, including creating user accounts and to file a petition to the responsible supervising authority.

RAISE implements proper security measures to protect your data against accidental or illegal damage, leakages, alterations, unauthorized access, as well as against any other forms of illegal processing.
